the Firm provide legal services to the Debtors, and the Firm has consented to provide such services.

3. The Firm may have performed services in the past and may perform services in the future, in matters unrelated to these Chapter 11 Cases, for persons that are parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases. As part of its customary practice, the Firm is retained in cases, proceedings, and transactions involving many different parties, some of whom may represent or be claimants or employees of the Debtor, or other parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases. The Firm does not perform services for any such person in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases. In addition, the Firm does not have any relationship with any such person, their attorneys, or accountants that would be materially adverse to the Debtors or their estates.

4. Neither I, nor any principal of, or professional employed by the Firm has agreed to share or will share any portion of the compensation to be received from the Debtors with any other person other than the principals and regular employees of the Firm.

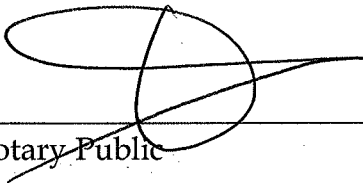

5. Neither I, nor any principal of, or professional employed by the Firm, insofar as I have been able to ascertain, holds or represents an interest adverse to the estate on the matter for which they are being retained.

6. The Debtors do not owe the Firm for prepetition services.

7. The Firm is conducting further inquiries regarding its retention by any creditors of the Debtor, and upon conclusion of that inquiry, or at any time during the period of its employment, if the Firm should discover any facts bearing on the matters described herein, the Firm will supplement the information contained in this Verified Statement, if necessary.
